

Final week

YOU are the boss this week and are in control of your afternoon activities. Choose what you want to do and when you want to do it, but try to do a mixture of different coloured activities. Most importantly, have fun doing them!

How do you feel? Do you feel anything change in your body when you think about it? It is normal to feel many different emotions. Try to paint or draw your feelings. Think about the colours and the movements which you may make.	Use random objects from around your home to try to make a 3D model or a portrait of yourself

My bag of concerns

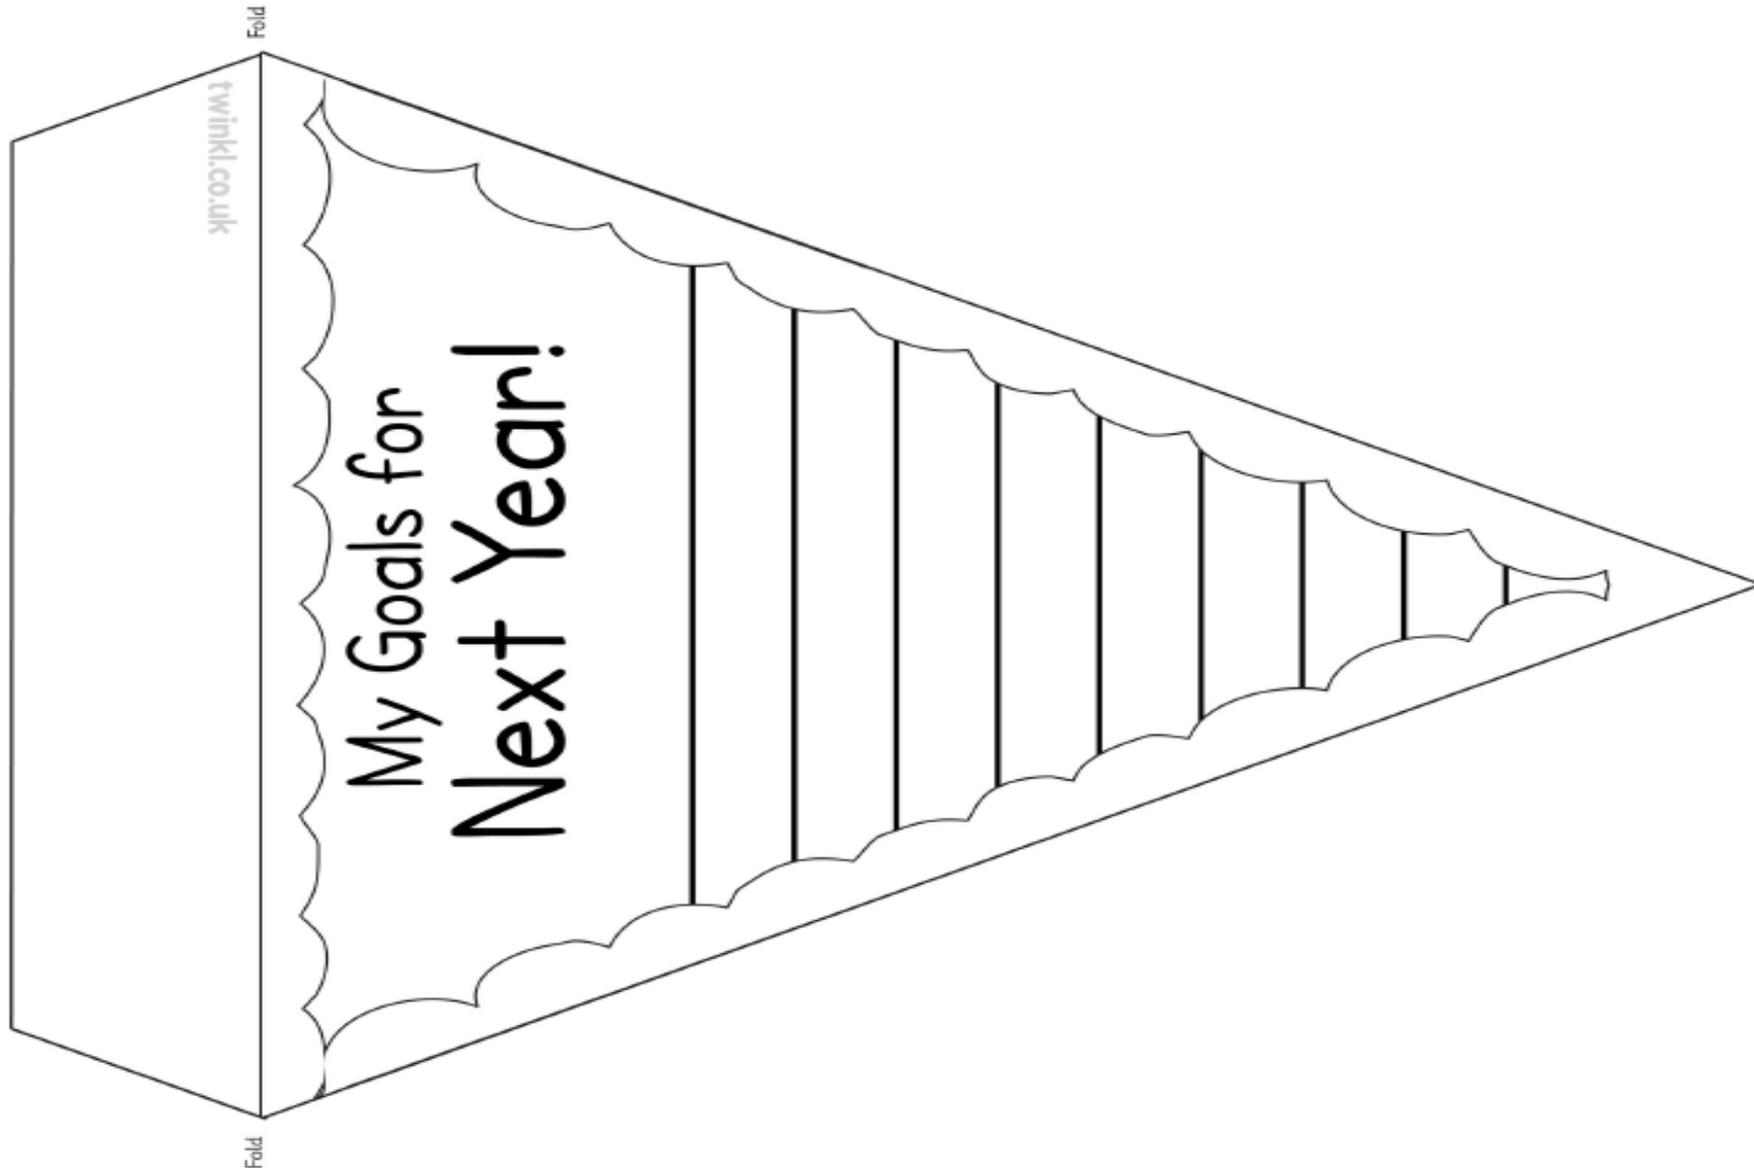

Either write your concerns about next year onto little strips of paper and put them into a bag or container or write them down inside of this bag template. Sometimes, just writing down our worries can help!

Maybe even try to discuss these concerns with an adult and either write how or when you will feel better about this e.g I am worried that my new teacher is strict I will feel better when I meet them. You can do this either on the back of your paper strips or on the outside of your 'bag of concerns'.

Goals for next year bunting

Write your goals/ aims for next year on this bunting template. Think about what you want to achieve both in school and outside of school. You can either take this in to your new teacher when you start back at school, or you could draw pictures of your 'goals' and how you will achieve them on the blank bunting template below and hang these up in your room with some ribbon or string to remind yourself of your aspirations. Make sure you ask an adult to help you to hang your bunting!

Memories poem by Lenore Hetrick

Memories

We may complain about our school work,
Perhaps we think our lessons hard.
We'd much prefer to be out playing,
And running in the big schoolyard.
But with the passing of the years
The dearest memories we'll call
Will be of hours that we have spent
Within the old gray schoolhouse wall.

We may consider it a trial
To have to add and multiply,
And lessons in geography
Bring many a long-drawn, anxious sigh,
But with the passing of the years
When time has cast its purple haze,
The memories that we will treasure
Will be of long-gone, old school days.

Party planning!

This is YOUR party! You can make it a 'pretend' party and invite celebrities and have it on the moon OR you could keep it simple with a picnic in the back garden with your toys. There is just one rule...

HAVE FUN planning!
